International Wing Chun Organization

31st December 2017

Dear IWCO Students,

This year, 2017, marked the 20th anniversary of the founding of IWCO. I'm very happy to say that our school has continued to make good progress in our development and growth and all of you have kept improving the skills over the past year, so I'll just be making a short but hopefully meaningful message to you this year.

I hope that all of you will not forget your original intent in studying Wing Chun and can maintain your desire for excellence in order to face our changing environment. In Chinese, we say: 「毋忘初心，形勢在變，精進不變」

I'd also like to share with you a photo of Wing Chun's "Wu Sau" to remind you of the meaning of "Wu" -- protecting, guarding and standing firm. It's a way to remind you to guard well your original intent.

Lastly, I wish you and your family a very happy New Year with lots of peace, success and happiness. Let's continue our journey together in 2018.

Yours sincerely,

Donald Mak
Chairman
